ABOUT THIS GROUP

Art therapy is a psychotherapeutic approach that uses creative expression and conversation to foster insight and personal growth.

Our wonderful Art Therapist, Amy, provides a safe and supportive environment that enables participants to explore their inner selves through art and reflection.

Amy always strives to meet each client exactly where they are at and provide a warm, welcoming and inclusive environment. She encourages individuals to experiment with various materials and techniques without requiring any prior experience or skill.

MEET THE GROUP FACILITATOR

Amy Goldman-Kaplan began her career freelancing in Creative Arts Program Design for galleries, museums and theatres. Amy has been passionate about using art as therapy in many different settings spanning the last 16 years including Rites of Passage work, indigenous communities, schools, disability care, women's spaces, mental health groups, leadership training and personal development pathways.
